About Charles Travis Bunting

Charles Travis Bunting is a world-renowned crappie fisherman and author. He has won numerous tournaments and has been featured in countless articles and television shows. Bunting is known for his innovative fishing techniques and his ability to catch crappie in even the most challenging conditions.

Bunting's Top 300 Crappie Fishing Tips

Bunting has generously shared his hard-earned knowledge with us, and we're excited to pass it on to you. Here are his top 300 crappie fishing tips:

1. Use live bait.

Live bait is the best way to catch crappie. Minnows, jigs, and small crankbaits are all effective choices.

2. Fish near structure.

Crappie like to hang out near structure, such as docks, bridges, and weed beds.

3. Use a light line and a small hook.

Crappie have small mouths, so you'll need to use a light line and a small hook to catch them.

4. Be patient.

Crappie can be finicky, so don't get discouraged if you don't catch anything right away. Just keep fishing and you'll eventually be rewarded.

5. Experiment with different colors and sizes of bait.

Crappie can be picky about the bait you use, so experiment with different colors and sizes until you find what they're biting on.

6. Use a variety of fishing techniques.

There are many different ways to catch crappie, so don't be afraid to try different techniques until you find one that works for you.

7. Fish in the early morning or late evening.

Crappie are most active in the early morning and late evening, so these are the best times to fish for them.

8. Fish in clear water.

Crappie can see very well, so they prefer to live in clear water.

9. Use a fish finder.

A fish finder can help you locate crappie and other fish in the water.

10. Be stealthy.

Crappie are easily spooked, so be stealthy when you're fishing for them.

11. Use a slow retrieve.

Crappie like to chase bait, so use a slow retrieve to give them time to catch up.

12. Set the hook quickly.

When you feel a bite, set the hook quickly. Crappie have soft mouths, so you don't want to give them a chance to get away.

13. Use a net to land your fish.

Crappie can be slippery, so use a net to land your fish to avoid losing them.

14. Keep your fish cool.

Crappie are delicate fish, so it's important to keep them cool after you catch them.

15. Eat your crappie!

Crappie are delicious fish, so enjoy eating them after you catch them.

These are just a few of Charles Travis Bunting's top 300 crappie fishing tips. If you follow these tips, you'll be well on your way to catching crappie like a pro. Good luck and have fun!
